BIOGRAPHY

Chidinma Nnoli (b. 1998 Enugu, Nigeria) is an artist working primarily with painting. Her practice contemplates the importance of a single subject's embodied experience(s), overlaying the past unto the present while insisting on the emotional link between body and space often in conflict with self and a background mostly saturated with religion and gendered obligations.

Nnoli earned her BFA from the University of Benin and presently lives and works in Lagos, Nigeria.
